SUMMARY & SCHEDULE

Enjoy an intimate evening with the legendary Chuck Leavell to benefit the Highlands-Cashiers Land Trust. Chuck Leavell's keyboard work has been heard on the works of Eric Clapton, the Rolling Stones, George Harrison, The Allman Brothers Band, The Black Crowes, Blues Traveler, Train, Martina McBride, John Mayer, David Gilmour, and many other prominent artists. His association with the Stones began back in 1982 and is still going strong, having recently toured with the Stones on their No Filter tours of Europe and the US. He is heard on their most recent Grammy-winning record, Blue and Lonesome, and has served as Musical Director for the Stones for more than 20 years.

A conservationist and sustainable development advocate, Chuck Leavell's commitment to the environment has been recognized world-wide, including being named Honorary Ranger by the US Forest Service. The evening will include a viewing of a portion of the rockumentary, "Chuck Leavell: Tree Man," and Q&A session and musical surprises.
